

INTERNATIONAL FOOD FESTIVAL SOUTH ASIA UNIVERSITY (SAU)

Food festival is primarily to re-integrate value back into food culture. Through such festivals, communities become aware of the importance of reviving their traditional food practices and production.

Every year the students of South Asia University in New Delhi organize the International food festival, this year the food festival organized by eight SAARC countries participated to serve up all kind of their traditional foods and the Afghan students from SAU approach the India-Afghanistan Foundation, Delhi chapter and brought the importance matter of food festival.

Considering its importance in terms of culture and helping the Afghan students, the IAF provide financial support and funded the project in order to encourage the Afghan students

The IAF Secretary Mr. Hamid Tahzeeb, diplomats from Embassy of Islamic Republic of Afghanistan New Delhi were participated in this festival to encourage the students.

It is worth mentioning that Afghan food was highly appreciated by the students, the administration and the faculty members of the University.

