

MAKTUBAT E SHAH MUHIBBULLAH ALLAHABADI

India-Afghanistan Foundation with its available resources is now capable of locating, discovering and introducing the rare books and treatises scattered around India on shared literary and spiritual heritage of the two countries with the support of Afghan and Indian scholars, devoted to the cause. India-Afghanistan Foundation is proud to publish the rare and valuable manuscripts first time, and one of these rare literary jewels is Maktubat e Shah Muhibullah Allahabadi, written by Shah Muhibullah Allahabadi, a great and celebrated mystic and scholar of the sub-continent.

Shah Muhibullah Allahabadi was one the preeminent Sufis of this region, who is also known as Shaikh e Kabir on the ground of his immense contribution towards proliferation of Sufi doctrine as well as a great exponent and commentator on the Sufi treatises of Ibne Arabi.

Sufis and mystics like Shah Muhibullah Allahabadi not only enriched spiritual arena but has also contributed to the language, literature and culture hugely, and therefore the whole Indian sub-continent and Afghanistan is grateful to their immense contribution.

IAF funded this project and the book published for the benefit of the large number of academia and general reader.
