

Aayena Garan (The students of Mirza Abdul Qadir Bidel)

The Aayena Garan book is one of the multi-dimensional books which covers mostly literature with the history of 18th century of Afghanistan and India. The book is written in Persian Language and it is a collection of the students of the prominent poet of Indian class of Persian Poetry of Mirza Abdul Qadir Bedil, who is mostly called as the master of Indian class of Persian Poetry.

Under the biography of each student of Bedil, there are the life events of their time, which is an important part of the history of Afghanistan and India. The explicit foreword is talking about the long-extent relationships between Afghanistan and India from the beginning of Islamic Era up to the late 19th century.

This book is a very important reference for those researchers, who want to do more research about 18th century's literature. The main filed of this book is biography and poets of 17th and 18th century in India, which is collection of Afghan and Indian Persian poets.

Aayena Garan (The students of Mirza Abdul Qadir Bidel) which is proudly being published by India-Afghanistan Foundation (IAF) and would surely pave new ways of research in the area. This book will definitely be helpful for academicians, scholars and researchers.